We, the class of '57, proudly acknowledge the 25th anniversary of Brentwood High School, and will strive to uphold all her past years of educational success. We carry with us the fond memories of the Senior Class Play, Class Party, Christmas Performance, Spring Festival, and all the good times we've shared as a class. Our thanks are extended to all who have helped us on our way, and we hope the class of '58 will secure the enjoyment and satisfaction from their senior year at Brentwood as we have. Best of luck, juniors!

Last Class Will and Testament

We, the class of '57, being of sound and disposing mind and memory, do hereby make, publish, and declare this to be our Last Will and Testament, revoking any prior will or wills heretofore made by us. We bequeath our loyalty and gratitude to our Alma Mater, Brentwood High School, for many happy and useful hours spent within her walls and for the inspiration which we have received here.

We hereby record the following individual requests:

I, Cy Kreger, will my curly locks to Huey O'Donnell.

We, Joanne Tarquinio and Suzy McClain, will our great ability to understand jokes and high I. Q.'s to any Juniors who need some extra brains.

I, Rich Castrodale, will my "do nothing" attitude to Ronald DeGenero.

We, Janis Wahl and Nancy Wright, will our size 28 tents (gym suits) and our size 11 barges (tennis shoes) to anyone who likes to take gym and swim at the same time.

I, Tom Bissell, will the last parking space on Park Drive to anyone who leaves late enough to get it.

We, Pat Kraeling and Linda Montgomery, will our third floor hall squad positions to any Juniors who have the strength to fight off the underclassmen.

I, John Larkin, hereby will my large size and my ability to block 300 pound middle guards to Rich Ranallo.

We, Marilyn Stephens and Eileen Rowan, will our athletic ability to any Junior girls who want to be permanent pole holders while playing volley ball.

I, David Cleary, will the nickname "The Bandit" to Walter Coleman for unmentionable reasons.

We, Joyce Stasko, Kathy Knoedler, and Suzy Casey, will our height to anyone who is content with a "bugs-eye view" of people.

I, Jim Kemmler, will my nickname "Fats" to Bo Kloss.

We, Sue Reber and Joanne Parilac, will our "muscles" to anyone strong enough in body and weak enough in mind to want them.

I, Lynn Pearson, will the "Rusty" Russell, Don Wilson, Lynn Pearson head managership to James Creighton.

We, Margie Benson and June Husak, will our naturally blond hair to anyone who is too cheap to buy peroxide.

I, Ron Bergmark, hereby will my "speedy ways" to the next year's track team.

We, Lynn Espy and Judy Rubenstein, will our crazy laughs and jokes to anyone who will enjoy them as much as we did.

I, Danny Gee, will the Gissy, Ladner, Onamastico, MacBurney, Krause, Gee way with women to Paul Elphinstone.

We, Hela Hensel and Chuck Sweeney, will the Anthem Editorships to anyone who can keep awake at 7:30 in the morning.

We, the class of '57, will our athletic ability, senior seats, lunch tables, crazy parties, and wonderful memories to the class of '58.

Class of 1957:

Because you have helped me to stay young in heart, and because you have helped to make my first year in Brentwood a pleasant one, I am thankful. You have done more than your share in causing me to continue to be glad that I am a teacher and can be with young people everyday.

You are idealistic. You are not afraid to meet head on any challenge which the world may present. You do not believe that a job cannot be accomplished because somebody said it could not be done.

You dream. You dream of a better world where the laws of the jungle will no longer prevail in any form. You dream of the part you will play in the great drama of life and not of empty pleasures and idleness.

At this graduation time my special hope for you is that you do not permit these traits of youth to vanish with the years. You are still the captain of your soul.

C. A. Sherman

Principal

To you, the class of 1957, may I extend my personal congratulations for a job well done. You have the honor of being members of Brentwood's silver anniversary class. This year marks the twenty-fifth year since the high school opened its doors, and the twenty-fourth annual commencement.

We are just as proud of your school accomplishments as we are of the twenty-three classes that preceded you. I hope you will make us justly proud of your future endeavors.

Continuously strive for the top. Keep your standards high. Pledge yourselves to a life of devotion to your community, your church, your country. Be a solid citizen in every respect.

Sincerely yours,
Thomas R. Shupe

Organizations

Anthem

Under the guidance of Mrs. Virginia K. Appel, the editors and the staff members of this year's Anthem worked hard and enthusiastically to produce a yearbook that would long be remembered as one of Brentwood's best. A silver cover and dedication page were used to commemorate the twenty-fifth anniversary of the school.

Senior Student Council

The Senior Student Council, under the sponsorship of Mr. Harold E. Demich, helped to govern the school and to attempt to solve any problems that might arise in the student body. A delegate from each senior high homeroom was present at all meetings. The council held a talent show and a Sock Hop. The highlight of the year was the annual Snowball Dance.

President ..... Bruce McNally
Vice President ..... Nancy Jo Hall
Secretary ..... Mary Laska
Treasurer ..... Richard Boyd

Junior Student Council

Under the able direction of Mrs. Inez M. Patrick, the Junior Student Council functioned in the same way as the Senior Student Council. They handled the government of the junior high and helped with any problems that developed. The council sponsored all junior high dances and other social functions. Their interest and co-operation proved them to be able leaders for future council work.

Girls' Ensemble

The angels in the Christmas Performance were none other than the Girls' Ensemble. These twelve girls chosen by Mr. Ross L. Munn included Sharleen Volpe, Irene Lake, Marilyn McCartney, Hela Hensel, first sopranos; Linda Montgomery, Arlene Batchelor, Pat Rowles, Sue Reber, second sopranos; and altos, Janet Logsdon, Lynn Espy, Judy Miketic, and Lois Stragand. These girls sang for the Spring Festival, the Thanksgiving, Christmas and Easter Performances.

Boys' Octet

Selected by Mr. Ross L. Munn, eight boys consisting of John Remark and Robert Cable, first tenors; Edward Bliss and Gary Hall, second tenors; James Kemmler and Cy Kreger, first basses; Lynn Pearson and Jack Mulhern, second basses, performed at various club organizations, assemblies and the Spring Festival.

Girls' Chorus

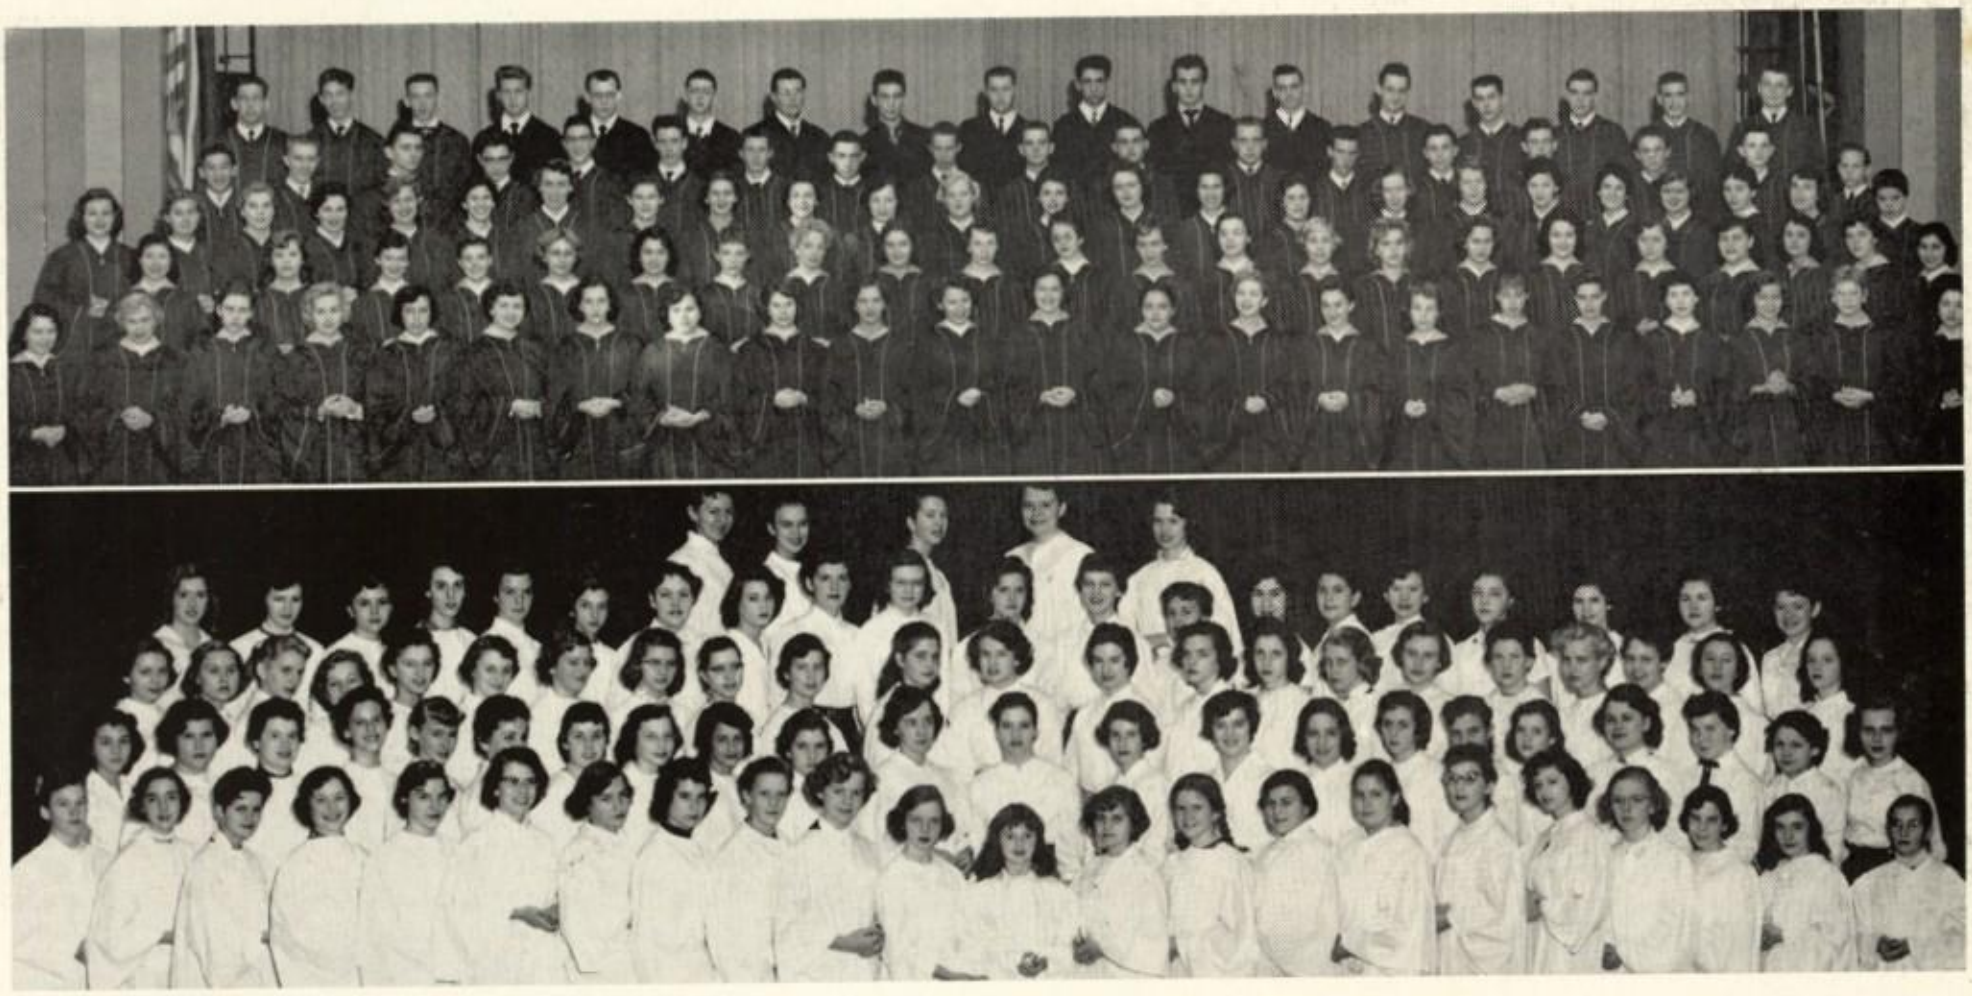
The Girls' Chorus under the direction of Mr. Ross L. Munn consisted of tenth, eleventh, and twelfth grade girls. They performed at the Thanksgiving Program, the Christmas Cantata, the Easter Performance and the Spring Festival.

Harmony was brilliantly demonstrated by this group of boys from the tenth, eleventh, and twelfth grades. They performed under the direction of Mr. Ross L. Munn at the Thanksgiving, Christmas, and Easter Performances and also at the Spring Festival.

Glee Club

Senior Choir

Clad in blue robes trimmed in gold, this selected group under the direction of Mr. Ross L. Munn showed their musical ability by singing gloriously in the Thanksgiving assembly, the Christmas Cantata, the Easter Program and the Spring Festival. They practiced every Monday and Tuesday during the Activities Period.



Composed of seventh, eighth, and ninth grade girls, they helped to add color and beauty to the Christmas Performance and the Spring Festival. This group is under the direction of Miss Ann D. Salinger.

Junior Choir

Symphonic Band

The sixty-seven members of the Symphonic Band under the direction of Mr. John S. Rumbarger held rehearsals every day during the third period. They performed at the Musicale, the Spring Festival and at Commencement. The band put forth all its efforts to make the 1956-57 year a memorable one.

Student Bandleader ..... Robert Cable

Librarian ..... Carol Jean Lamp

Assistant Librarian ..... Barbara Daugherty

Secretary ..... Nancy Appel

Marching Band

The outstanding playing and precision marching of the band made it a must at every football game. The drills which the members of the band had every day after school helped them to master the many different routines. The band, directed by Mr. John S. Rumbarger, also performed at parades and pep assemblies. Ron Miller served as head drillmaster while David Ray and Diane Peterson were his assistants.

Majorettes

The Spartanettes, led by Sally Maybury, performed their clever half-time routines at every football game. They also participated in pep assemblies and parades. The Spartanettes were under the able direction of Mr. John S. Rumbarger. One of their highlights of the season was the Musicale of '57 in which they performed their Chinatown routine. The other members of the majorette squad are Xenia Kundrat, Shirley Lantzy, Judy Lewis, Joyce Linnert, Carol Lister, and Malena Radosevich.

Library Club

The Library Club, ably directed by Miss Helen Ruth Lidstone, consisted of girls who were willing to devote their study periods to work in the library. These girls were responsible for the decorations that were always present in the library. Bookbinding parties were held and the biggest social function was the Christmas Party.

President ..... Mary Leggett
Vice President ..... Judy Franz
Secretary ..... Amelia Weber
Treasurer ..... Pat Fearer

Senior Cheerleaders

The 1956-57 cheerleading squad consisted of Nancy Martire, head cheerleader, Mary Laska, Jean Gargotta, Linda Howells, Nancy Kissock, Jeannette Martire, and Kathy Reber. They were always on hand to cheer on our football and basketball teams and to participate in all pep assemblies. The cheerleaders, who are members of the National Cheerleading Association, are sponsored by Mr. John S. Rumbarger. Sue Ranallo and Carole Yagello served as substitutes.

Junior Cheerleaders

The peppy junior cheerleaders, sponsored by Miss Jean M. Angst, were always on hand to cheer at all junior high basketball games and all junior varsity football games. They helped to create more and better school spirit in the seventh, eighth, and ninth grades. The cheerleading squad consisted of Barbara Coretto, captain, Joan Cikoski, Gail Renton, Sally Souligny, and Dianne Teetsell.

Investment Club

The purpose of the club was to acquaint young people with the buying and selling of stocks and other forms of business. Kathy Knoedler headed the "Board of Directors" and Mr. William P. Douglass aided the students in their work.

President ..... Ron Fallgren
Vice President ..... Robert Cable
Secretary and Treasurer ..... Joanne Tarquinio

Business Club

Broadening the knowledge of the business world, combined with good grooming and correct office etiquette was the main objective of this club. The purpose of the club, sponsored by Miss Elizabeth A. Corcoran, was to better prepare girls interested in the secretarial field.

President ..... Janice Wahl
Vice President ..... Judy Hoellein
Secretary ..... Kathy Knoedler
Treasurer ..... Joyce Stasko
Social Chairman ..... Karen Ushkarat

Math Club

Sponsored by Mrs. Mary Eckman, the Math Club studied and used the slide rule, worked with binary numbers, and became acquainted with the basic principles of math.

President ..... Anastas Ustabashieff
Secretary ..... Nancy Appel

Photography Club

In regularly scheduled lab periods, the members studied the fundamentals of photography which includes the printing of pictures, the developing of film, and the enlarging of pictures. Mr. John R. Evans served as sponsor for this club.

President ..... Richard Williams
Vice-President ..... Kathy Reber
Secretary-Treasurer ..... Allan Lewis

Hall Squad

The principal duty of the hall squad was to maintain order and discipline in the halls and to keep the movement of traffic under control. Mr. John R. Evans, the sponsor, was on hand to help members who encountered any difficulty.

Sound Squad

Under the able direction of Mr. Sanford E. DeBerry, the sound squad aided in the projection of movies in the classrooms and in the playing of records at dances.

G. A. L.

Under the sponsorship of Mrs. Claire Bell, the Girls' Athletic League was in charge of the volley ball and basketball intramurals. The highlight of the year was the annual G. A. L. formal, which was titled "The Garden of Dreams." Joanne Parilac, the dance chairman, and the senior girls worked hard to make this year's dance a memorable one.

President ..... Sue Reber
Vice President ..... Judy Rubenstein
Secretary ..... Pat Barker
Treasurer ..... Pat Kraeling

11 Y-Teens

Under the sponsorship of Mrs. Claire Bell, the 11 Y-Teens dressed dolls for Christmas, sent a scrap book to Belgium, and participated in the Inter-Club World Fellowship Service. Their two main activities were the Y-Teen Recognition Service and the banquet held in April.

President ..... Barbara Beggs
Vice President ..... Pat Fearer
Secretary ..... Jay Thomas
Treasurer ..... Lois Nesbitt

10 Y-Teens

Advising the 10 Y-Teens was Mrs. Zelda Coons. Dressing dolls and a record hop were a few of their activities. They also attended the Y-Teen Recognition Service and the annual banquet held at the end of the year.

President ..... Diane Peterson
Vice President ..... Donna Hartung
Secretary ..... Marcia Bowen
Treasurer ..... Nancy Kissock

9 Y-Teens

Under the able guidance of Miss Ann D. Salinger, these ninth grade girls dressed dolls and visited orphanages during the year. They also participated in the Y-Teen Recognition Service and attended the annual banquet.

President ..... Diane Shorr
Vice President ..... Cathie Scheetz
Secretary ..... Janice Lloyd
Treasurer ..... Roberta Cromlish

Stage Crew

Under the supervision of Mr. Earl T. Kuhn, this year's stage crew helped make possible the success of all the plays and activities. The crew consisted of Charles Sweeney, Jack Mulhern, Robert Cable, and Richard Seger.

Pep Club

As a new club this year, the Pep Club was enthusiastically accepted as over one hundred girls from the tenth, eleventh, and twelfth grades became members. The purposes of this club are to incorporate school spirit, to promote organized cheering, and to promote the participation of spectators in cheering and school songs. The Pep Club is co-sponsored by Miss Annajean Grieve and Mrs. Nancy Morgan.

Junior Hi-Y

The Junior Hi-Y, under the able sponsorship of Mr. Rudolph Bruggeman, consisted of seventh, eighth, and ninth grade boys. A few of the aims of this club are to develop a firm worship of God, to strengthen minds and bodies, and to work for the betterment of the community.

President ..... Lang Clydesdale
Vice President ..... John Flannery
Secretary ..... Edward Pietrzak
Treasurer ..... Jack Loeffert

Crafts Club

The members brought their special hobbies from home and worked on them in the shop. The club met every first and third Thursday of each month during the school year. The Crafts Club is co-sponsored by Mr. Earl T. Kuhn and Mr. James R. Means.

Activities Play

"Time Out for Ginger" was this year's activities play produced under the direction of Mrs. Virginia O. Shew and student director, Nancy Appel. The three-act comedy presented on Thursday, December sixth, to a capacity audience was one of the most popular in the school's history.

Senior Class Play

On Thursday, May 2, the Senior class presented "See How They Run", a farce in three acts by Philip King.

In and out of the four doors of an English Vicarage galloped two American ex-actors, a cockney maid who has seen too many American movies and a prim spinster of thirty-five. Four men dressed in clergyman's suits baffled the audience. One was an escaped prisoner, and another a sedate bishop who was aghast at all the confusion. These characters became hilariously involved in helping the audience to decide who was the real Vicar.

The play was under the direction of Mrs. Virginia Shew and the Student Director, June Darling.

Football

Filled more than ever with spirit, desire and the will to win, Brentwood finished up with a winless season. Under the able coaching of Robert Wrenshall, James Trovato, Raymond Hull, and Samuel Diaconis, the Lacs were short on luck.

The Spartans scored a total of six touchdowns, one more than last year's total.

The high spot of this year was the MacDonald game. Dan Gee, captain, and Bill Serafini, co-captain, led the team in a thrilling offensive display. The final score was Brentwood 19, MacDonald 33.

A definite loss to next year's lineup are the graduating lettermen. The seniors that have made mighty big shoes to fill are linemen Bill Serafini. Ron Westerman, Bill Mathieson, Bruce Tennyson, John Larkin and Jim Kemmler along with backs, Dan Gee, Dave Cleary and head manager Lynn Pearson.

Basketball

With the help of only one returning letterman, Chuck Narvin, the Spartans went through an average season of 10 wins and 11 losses. Our only great obstacle this season was lack of experience.

Ron Butchley, a junior, with a total of 320 points and Chuck Narvin, a sophomore, with 286 points, led the team as both interchanged as captain throughout the year.

Coach William P. Douglass, head coach, and assistant coach, James Trovat, stressed fundamentals and team play with the boys. The loss of senior lettermen Ron Fallgren, Ray Meenan, Dan Gee, and head manager Lynn Pearson will be greatly felt in next years line-up. Returning lettermen are juniors Ron Butchley, Paul Elphinstone, and Bob Darling along with sophomore Chuck Narvin.

Junior High Basketball

Coached by Raymond Hull, the Brentwood Junior High had a tough season with 4 wins and 9 losses. The unsuccessfulness of the season is attributed to lack of experience. High score for a years total was Bill Switzer, a freshman, with a total of 133.

Next years J. V. can expect lettermen Charles Bracken, Lang Clydesdale, Robert Fisher, Donald Kenavy, David Louda, Robert Mulholland, Nick Radosevich, Richard Roehn, William Switzer, William Wilson, Robert Henrich, John Lawson, George Steinbaugh and Managers Jim Caruso and Elwood Lamp.

J. V. Basketball

Coached by Mr. James Trovato, Brentwood's Junior Varsity went on to place first, as undisputed winners, in section XIII. They finished with 15 wins and 4 losses.

The high spot of this year was the first Baldwin game when we finished with a 2 point edge on the Highlanders. Bob Darling was high scorer with 6 points and Dave Westerman along with Carl Leslie were tied for second high with 5 points each.

Giving next year's Varsity a lift will be juniors Bob Burger, Dave Westerman, Bob Darling, Tom Miller, and Nick Vitale along with sophomores Carl Leslie and Gene Nicholson.

J. V. Football

As a result of another season's practice and team play, the J. V.'s have developed experienced material to furnish next year's Varsity. Coached by Mr. Samuel Diaconis are Ends: Louis Denardo, Hugh O'Donell, Jim Takach; Tackles: Robert Burger, and Robert Gianni; Guards: John Wingertzahn, Nick Monsour, Joseph Kubisiek, James Goodwin, Jerry Strom, and John Fulton with Centers, Walter Coleman, and David Johns.

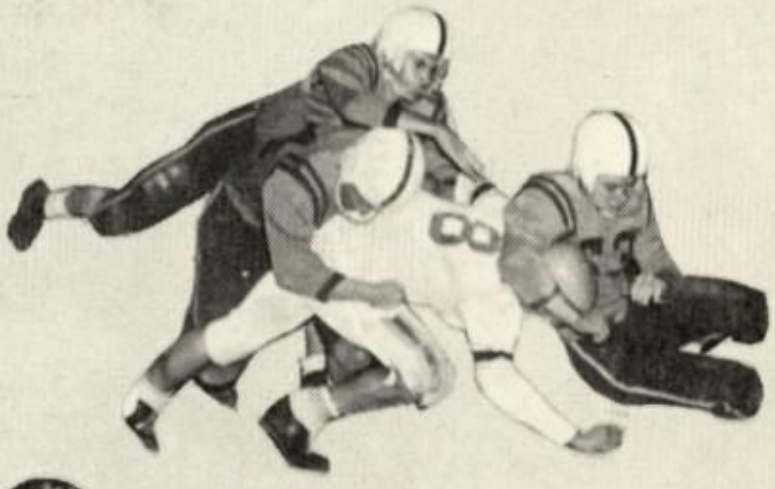
PLAYBACK

THE BIG



Track

This year's track squad is centered around last year's mile relay, Class B, W. P. I. A. L. winning stars, Chuck Lee and Dan Gee. The only other returning lettermen are Jack Vazzana and Dave Trudel, a junior. Other up and coming men are—Junior Ustabashieff, pole vault—Chuck Sweeney and Jim Kemmler—discus—Dick Bodnar, shot—Bill Kitner, high jump and Tom Young with the javelin. Rich Boyd and Cy Kregar along with Ron Westerman, sprinters and miler respectively, complete this year's senior line-up. The team is under the supervision of track coach Rudolph Bruggeman, field coach Donald Anderson, trainer Lynn Pearson, and head manager Jim Creighton.

Cross Country

Under the guidance of Coach Douglass, the boys played Canonsburg, Central Catholic, Taylor Alderdice, Wilkinsburg, Hopewell, and North Allegheny.

With Bob Gasiorowski setting the pace this year, the Spartans boasted a three win, three loss season. Bob, a junior, came within one minute and one second of tying last year's graduate, Bob Mason, whose record was twelve minutes and fifty-three seconds.

Senior lettermen who are to be lost in this year's graduation are Chuck Lee, Harry McCune, Cy Kregar, Ray Meenan, and Ron Fallgren. Returning lettermen are juniors Bob Gasiorowski, John Wilkinson, and Bob Darling along with Bob Rimmel, a sophomore.
